Fellow Shareholders,

With all of this year's "mortgage meltdown" and "credit crunch" chaos that the economy (and even more so the financial services sector) has suffered, American Savings Life (ASL) has remained a strong performer. While multiple other companies have lost value this last year, ASL has enjoyed another year of record profits.

So how is it that we have fared so well, when over two hundred large national lending institutions have either closed their doors, filed for bankruptcy or drastically scaled back their business? And what about the thousands of small mortgage companies that have gone out of business as well? How do we enjoy record profits when financial giants like Merrill Lynch and Citigroup are having to write off Billions of dollars in losses?

The answer is in our business model. As a life insurance company first and foremost, we maintain a very conservative investment philosophy. So even though we have over eighty percent of our total assets invested in real estate mortgage loans, our loan portfolio is more conservative and "recession proof" than most others. This is primarily a result of two investment guidelines we follow. First, we make every effort to determine a conservative economic value for a property, often valuing it less than the appraised value. Second, we only loan a modest percentage of our determined property value, usually about fifty percent.

So while banks and other lenders are often forced to sell their foreclosure properties for a loss because they are owed more than the property is worth, we have not had that problem. Property values would have to continue to drop all the way to nearly half their recent values before we would be in that situation. As a result, we have not experienced an increase in loan defaults and have not had to take a property back through foreclosure for over two years.

Of course, there is certainly no guarantee this will not change. If the housing market continues to worsen and/or the commercial real estate market loses significant value, we most likely will experience some (and perhaps even many) foreclosures — like we did in the wake of the "S&L crisis" from 1988 through 1992.

In fact, just today as we are writing this letter, Dr. Ben Bernanke, the Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, made the following statement to the U.S. Senate in his report on the state of the U.S. economy:

"The business sector has also displayed signs of being affected by the difficulties in the housing and credit markets. Likewise, after growing robustly through much of 2007, nonresidential construction is likely to decelerate sharply in coming quarters as business activity slows and funding becomes harder to obtain, especially for more speculative projects."

- Fed Chairman Ben S. Bernanke, Feb 27, 2008

It is our expectation that both the residential and commercial real estate markets will get worse (perhaps much worse) before they get better, and that it could be a much longer road to recovery than most economists are willing to project.

This does not worry us, however. We have weathered difficult economic times in the past and we have proven that our investment practices serve us well in times such as these. Indeed, we are pleased to "be able to sleep when the wind blows."

In the meantime, we will continue to manage your assets conservatively — minimizing risks while maintaining attractive returns. Plus, as we continue to grow the other areas of our business, we will further increase and diversify our sources of income.

This Annual Report is our means of reporting to you on how we measured up to our mission to "Fortify Our Foundation and Further Our Growth." This mission statement was inspired by our Company Founder, Frihoff Allen, in the conclusion of his 1965 letter to the Company shareholders:

"The efforts of management are ever pledged to further growth and expansion based upon the firm foundation now established."

We report in detail on how we measured up to this commitment in the following "Management Discussion and Analysis" section.

Increased Stock Buy-Back Price

The Board of Directors has increased the Company's stock buy-back price (for up to one million shares of Company stock) from 67% to 80% of the most recent stock equity value. This increase in the Company's stock buy-back price is to provide increased liquidity to those shareholders who desire (or in most cases need) to sell their shares. It is not intended to encourage you to sell your shares.

Indeed, the Board of Directors approved this increase in the buyback price because we believe the future value of your shares will continue to increase and provide attractive increasing cash dividends, including unrealized gains that are not reflected in the current equity value. We encourage you to read the "Effect of Real Estate Items Not Included" in Note #3 of the last section of this report (page 16).

We are pleased with our 2007 accomplishments. We generated solid financial results and delivered greater earnings to shareholders. The real excitement, however, lies in the coming years as our growth strategies that complement our existing business begin to contribute even greater shareholder returns. It is this challenge and opportunity that allows us to wake up each morning with excitement toward an even brighter future of this great Company.

We thank our outstanding employees for their diligent efforts in creating the success that we shareholders enjoy. We also thank you, our loyal shareholders, for your continued confidence in our leadership.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Operations & Financial Position

REPORT ON HOW WE MEASURED UP TO OUR MISSION TO:

"Fortify Our Foundation and Further Our Growth."

Fortifying Our Foundation - Maintaining a strong balance sheet while consistently increasing dividends:

Strong Balance Sheet:

- As you can see on page one, our financial strength improved during 2007 as we increased total assets by over $1.3 million (6.5%) and shareholder equity by over $650,000 (4.1%).
- ◆ Throughout the year we maintained an asset mix with an average 80% of our total assets invested in mortgage loans, which provide us with exceptional risk-adjusted returns. We discuss this in greater depth on page 7.
- Our returns are achieved without the use of debt. The only material liabilities we have are reserves required for our life insurance products, impound funds for the mortgage loans we service and funds on deposit with the Company (APD/GIC accounts).
- Consistently Increasing Dividends: We have increased dividends eighteen of the last twenty years and maintained our dividend the two years they did not increase. The Board of Directors have declared a 24¢ per share dividend for 2008, with 12¢ per share paid on April 8th and 12¢ per share paid on October 14th. This is a 9.1% increase from last year and will total approximately $1.2 million.

Furthering Our Growth - Report on Three Growth Initiatives:

We are particularly pleased with this year's performance when we consider that we have also made considerable strides in our growth initiatives that are not reflected in this year's financial performance. Here is a brief report on what has transpired during 2007 and what we anticipate for 2008:

Subsidiary mortgage company: American Life Financial Corporation (ALF), received its Arizona mortgage bankers license in June 2007. We have expanded our office space to make room for additional employees as we grow our loan origination business in 2008. Our goal for ALF is to add an additional 3% growth in ASL's consolidated net earnings for 2008.

- Real Estate Investments: Together with a real estate investment group, In March 2007 we closed on the purchase of a large assemblage of land in Northern Arizona adjacent to the town of Holbrook. We have sold 12 of the 15 billboards on our nearly 5,000 acre property and we are working diligently to enable the property to be sold off in smaller pieces to expanding businesses or developers. Even though investor demand for land in today's real estate market has deteriorated, we are confident that we "bought it right" and will be able to sell it for an attractive gain.
- Growth of our life insurance business: In 2007 we worked on developing a new annuity product, but have not yet established a satisfactory marketing method. We also made an unsuccessful attempt to acquire a small life insurance company (that's 0-for-2 in the last 2 years). To re-establish growth in our life insurance sales organically, we have begun to seek additional life insurance/annuity product development and marketing expertise. We will also continue to look for other life insurance companies to acquire at an appropriate price.

ANALYSIS OF OPERATIONS & FINANCIAL POSITION LIFE INSURANCE BUSINESS

Our life insurance business had modest growth, with most growth from an increase in funds in deposit accounts. Here are the highlights of our life insurance business for 2007:

Total funds deposited with the Company in our deposit accounts increased $538,000 (29%). These accounts are our Advance Premium Deposit (APD) accounts and Guaranteed Interest Contracts (GIC) accounts. These accounts pay very attractive interest rates with a guaranteed minimum interest rate of 4.0%.

Even though 4.0% is actually higher than the interest rate we are earning today on our cash accounts, these products are still profitable to the Company because we are able to have a large part of these funds invested in our conservative mortgage loans earning an average of 11.5% interest.

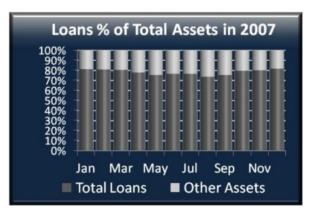

- Although our total policyholder benefits paid out (death claims plus surrender "living" benefits plus policy dividends) for 2007 were $48,000 more than the previous year's, this year's total of $139,000 is approximately equal to the average we have paid out over the last five years.
- We know that insurance benefits paid can fluctuate widely from year to year, but what is important is that overall, our life insurance business is profitable. In last year's Annual Report, we explained in fairly good detail how our life insurance business generates hundreds of thousands of net income each year.

MORTGAGE LOAN INVESTMENTS

We were successful again in 2007 at keeping our investment mix maximized for the highest yield possible by averaging 80% of our total assets invested in real estate mortgage loans throughout the year.

If our loan portfolio were a typical bank or mortgage company loan portfolio, consisting of high loan-to-value loans (particularly if most of them were residential loans), this concentration of assets in mortgage loans might be a very risky position.

Our total $18 million loan portfolio, however, equals a mere 45% of our original valuation of the properties securing the loans and only equals 35% of the appraised value of these loans.

For these reasons, we feel confident continuing to invest as much of our assets in these mortgage loans as possible, while maintaining adequate cash reserves.

REAL ESTATE INVESTMENTS

Our Real Estate Department had an extremely productive year in 2007. Here are the highlights:

- We closed on the purchase of the 4,700 acre property in Northern Arizona near the town of Holbrook and they are working toward adding value to the property by preparing it to be sold to investors in smaller pieces at much higher prices than our purchase price.
- We sold the Desert Oasis Mobile Home Park for $400,000 in June. This netted us a capital gain of $65,000.
- We earned $424,000 in capital gains. The chart below shows the largest contributors to these capital gains. $320,000 or 75% of all capital gains are from the sale of real estate.
- Capital gains earned from real estate sales contributed 15.4% to our taxable income.
- We received $227,000 in interest and $125,000 in recognized capital gains as we continued to receive payments from the 2004 sale of the 550 acres called "Vekol Wash" off of I-8 in Southern Arizona. We are should continue to receive payments through 2011, at which time a balloon payment of approximately $1.7 million will be due.
- In last year's report we reported selling out of our residential lots in Sun Valley, just outside of Holbrook, Arizona. These loans and contracts for sale have performed very well overall. The sale of these lots has contributed $130,000 to our 2007 pre-tax earnings. We still have $485,000 in outstanding principal due, which we are scheduled to receive over the next four years.

How We Compare With Our Peers

Some of our shareholders have wondered how their American Savings Life Ins Co (ASL) shares compare with the industry, in terms of price and performance. We have selected the Life Insurance Industry, the Mortgage Investment Industry and the overall Financial Sector (excluding foreign banks) as our peers. (Since ASL stock is not traded on a public stock exchange, we used the Company's per share book value as the stock price, which was $3.31 as of Dec 31, 2007).

The P/E Ratio (Price-to-Earnings ratio) is a common measurement used to compare how expensive a company's stock is compared to the company's earnings. Generally, a lower P/E Ratio indicates a better value.

The Price-to-Book Value ratio is another common measurement used to compare how expensive a company's stock is compared to the company's book value. Generally, a lower price-to-book ratio indicates a better value.

The Dividend Yield is computed by dividing total annual dividends by a stock's price. The higher the number, the higher cash return from dividends one receives for the price of the stock.
